Presenter's Name & ID:
1. Content	40	This criterion evaluates the quality and completeness of the presenter's content. Points will be awarded based on the effectiveness of the introduction, the soundness of the methods/approach presentation, and the strength of the discussion and conclusion.
1.1 Intro & Background	10	The introduction and background should clearly and concisely introduce the topic and provide relevant context for the audience.
1.2 Approach	10	The methods/approach should be clearly described and demonstrate sound reasoning and methodology.
1.3 Results	10	The results should be clearly presented and interpreted in a way that is meaningful and relevant to the audience.
1.4 Discussion & Conclusion	10	The discussion and conclusion should effectively summarize the key points of the presentation and provide insights or recommendations for future work.
2. Organization	20	This criterion evaluates the presenter's ability to effectively structure their presentation, use transitions to guide the audience, and manage their time.
2.1 Structure	10	The structure of the presentation should be clear and logical, with a well-defined beginning, middle, and end.
2.2 Transitions	5	Transitions should be used effectively to guide the audience from one point to another and help them understand how the different parts of the presentation are connected.
2.3 Time Management	5	The presenter should effectively manage their time and ensure that they do not go over the allotted time.
3. Delivery	30	This criterion evaluates the presenter's verbal skills, use of visual aids, and body language.
3.1 Verbal Skills	10	The presenter's verbal skills should be clear, confident, and engaging, with appropriate pace, tone, and volume.
3.2 Visual Aids	10	Visual aids, such as slides or handouts, should be used effectively to support the presentation and help the audience understand the content.
3.3 Body Language	10	The presenter's body language, including posture, eye contact, and gestures, should be natural and convey confidence and engagement.
4. Overall Impression	10	This criterion evaluates the overall impression of the presentation, taking into account factors such as creativity, originality, and impact.
Total Score	100		